My Friend's House Names New Board Members

FRANKLIN, Tenn. – June 14, 2011 – My Friend's House Family and Children's Services announces the addition of two new members to the Board of Directors. Robert W. Blair and Adam Woynaroski join the 13-member board that oversees the residential program and therapeutic services provided at My Friend's House.

"The staff and current board of My Friend's House welcome Robert and Adam," said Board President Kim Helper. "They are both accomplished leaders that bring a wealth of expertise and passion to our board during an exciting time in our 23-year history as we move our Capital Campaign forward to build a new facility and expand our programs to serve even more youth in our community."

Blair, a life-long Franklin resident, works at Financial Data Technology Corp., a banking data processing company based in Franklin. He serves as education director and works with the Jail Ministry and Nursing Home programs at the Church of Christ at Cummins Street and volunteers at several local nonprofit organizations. Blair's additional board positions include the Franklin Special School District and Leadership Franklin.

Woynaroski has served as community leader at Walgreens for more than a decade and plays an active role with many area organizations including Gabe's Chemo Duck, American Cancer Society's Relay for Life, Muscular Dystrophy Association, MS Society, American Diabetes Association, ABLE Youth, Alzheimer's Association, AARP and the Area Agency on Aging & Disability. He is a referee for the Williamson County Soccer Association and attended Trevecca Nazarene University.

About My Friend's House

My Friend's House Family and Children's Services was founded by Juvenile Court Judge Jane Franks after she grew frustrated by the lack of facilities in the area to house and care for boys that needed to be removed from an unhealthy home environment.

The non-profit began operations in 1988 and has since provided a home for nearly 2,000 boys and has served more than 6,000 families. Located at 626 Eastview Circle in Franklin, My Friend's House provides a variety of programs and services to help youth recover from adverse situations and to become successful young adults. It is the only private residential program serving young men in Williamson County. For more information, please call 615.790.8553 or visit myfriendshousetn.org.
